

OLIVER WYMAN: HEALTH & LIFE SCIENCES

Are you a PhD, postdoc, MD, or PharmD that is passionate about making a difference in the healthcare and life sciences industry and looking to start a career in consulting?

Join us virtually on May 11th to learn more about career opportunities in the Health & Life Sciences (HLS) practice at Oliver Wyman

During this event, you will have the opportunity to:

- Explore the career path of advanced degree candidates at OW and the application process*
- Discover different areas of the HLS practice, including strategy, commercialization, market access, and more
- Network with OW consultants and ask questions about OW & the HLS practice

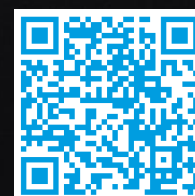

*The role is currently open to PhDs, postdocs, MDs, and PharmDs, although all are welcome to attend the event and learn more

Thursday May 11th

7:00 – 8:00 PM ET
