

Digital Archives, Mapping, and Higher Education

A virtual conversation with Mellon Postdoctoral Fellows at Berea College,
Fisk University, Tennessee State University, and Tougaloo College

October 8, 2021

8:45
Opening Remarks

9:00
Dr. Jesse Montgomery, Berea College
Sounding the Archives: Access and Community in the Hutchins Library Traditional Music Collection

9:30
Dr. Emma Banks, Tennessee State University
Community Collaboration through COVID-19: The Afro Guajiro Archive

10:00
Dr. Deann Armstrong Trakus, Tougaloo College
Textual Healing: The Humanities, Intergenerational Trauma, and Self-Care

10:30
Dr. Magana Kabugi, Fisk University
"The Nature of Our Enterprise": Walter J. Leonard and the Challenge of Black Higher Education, 1977-1984

11:00
Dr. Tiago Fernandes Maranhão, Tougaloo College with Maria Paula Andrade, Vanderbilt University
The Transatlantic Bodies Project: Mapping Diseases and Medical Knowledge in Brazil

11:30
Dr. Jason Smith, Tougaloo College
Tricking Students into Synthesis: Using StoryMaps as Cumulative Projects

12:00
Q&A and Discussion

Sponsored by the Mellon Partners for Humanities Education

<https://my.vanderbilt.edu/mellonpartnershumanities>

RSVP to Angela.C.Sutton@Vanderbilt.edu