- How do I join a Virtual Classroom?

The Virtual Classroom meeting interface

This image shows a basic overview of the Virtual Classroom interface. We will also provide more detailed descriptions of the participant panel and chat panel.

1. Open the participant panel
2. Open the chat panel
3. Title of the meeting
4. Instructor is recording
5. PNG and download speeds
6. Whiteboard area
7. Mute/Unmute your mic
8. Stop the audio, but stay in the meeting
9. Share your screen or camera

The side panel

The side panel shows the Participant panel and Chat panel. You can show these by clicking the icons on the toolbar as described above.

1. Participant panel - shows a list of participants and their audio status and who is sharing their screen.
2. Chat panel scrolling chat log
3. Chat field for entering chat

The screenshot displays a Zoom meeting interface. On the left is the 'MESSAGES' side panel showing a 'Public Chat' and a list of three users: Vandy Stu3 (You), Erica Brandon, and Vandy Stu2. Erica Brandon's name is highlighted with an orange box labeled '1'. In the center is a 'Public Chat' window with a message history and a text input field at the bottom labeled 'Message Public Chat' with an orange box labeled '3'. The chat history includes messages from Erica Brandon and Vandy Stu3. Erica Brandon's second message is highlighted with an orange box labeled '2'. On the right, a document titled 'Tier List - Stats' is shared, showing a table with columns A and B. The table lists various tiers and names, with some rows highlighted in purple and orange.
