

Tony Falconi

Tampa, FL • 432-234-4859 • tony.falconi@vanderbilt.edu • Pronouns: he/him/his

EDUCATION

Vanderbilt University, Nashville, TN
Bachelor of Arts; Medicine, Health, and Society
Minors: Financial Economics and Sociology
Cumulative GPA: 3.50/4.00

May 2023

Honors: Dean's List (Spring 2021, Fall 2021)

Financed 50% of tuition through Tennessee Hope Scholarship & Gertrude Vanderbilt Scholarship

RELEVANT COURSEWORK

Corporate Strategy
Public Health Policy

Organizational & Managerial Communications
Health Service Delivery to Diverse Populations

ACADEMIC PROJECTS

Healthcare Reform Memorandum

January 2022 – May 2022

- Collaborated with four classmates to analyze current U.S. healthcare system through interviews with healthcare professionals, reviewing historical data, and understanding the current protocol for care
- Researched financing, patients' rights, and provider's responsibility to primarily determine problems in healthcare system
- Drafted and presented report of written recommendations to address problems identified

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

Vanderbilt Coalition for Healthy Aging, Remote
Immigrant and Refugee Health Program Intern

June 2022 – August 2022

- Conducted in-depth interviews with 10 public health and community organization professionals to gain insight into health beliefs and practices of immigrant and refugee populations in middle Tennessee
- Developed cultural competence training program for 50 medical professionals to increase awareness of immigrant population in health service delivery
- Directed test-run of training program with 10 Vanderbilt medical students to determine program effectiveness

LEADERSHIP

Best Buddies Vanderbilt
Public Relations Chair

May 2021 – Present

- Advertise all monthly events via email, Internet, and flyer publications to reach Vanderbilt campus of 7,000 students
- Outline and train newly elected student leaders aligned with the mission of Best Buddies

Membership Coordinator

August 2020 – May 2021

- Facilitated one-to-one friendship pairs involving 30 college students and individuals with intellectual and/or physical disabilities based on applications and informal interviews
- Managed Best Buddies Gala ticket sales resulting in $500 raised for inaugural Best Buddies Spring Break Trip

Medicine, Health, and Society Advisory Board

Student Advisor

August 2019 – Present

- Consulted faculty about curriculum, programming, and extra-curricular activities as part of five-member board to advocate for interests of 350 students pursuing Medicine, Health, & Society Major
- Direct three informational sessions to educate first-year and transfer students about specifics of major
- Mentor 10 undeclared students seeking advice or guidance on academic coursework selection

ADDITIONAL EMPLOYMENT

Tennessee Disability Pathfinder, Nashville, TN, Research Assistant

September 2021 – Present

Meritan Case Management, Memphis, TN, Payroll Assistant

May 2021 – August 2021

Law Offices of Kendra Hazlett Armstrong, P.C., Memphis, TN, Legal Assistant

May 2020 – August 2020

SKILLS

Computer: Proficient in Photoshop & Dreamweaver

Language: Intermediate Proficiency in Spanish