

A PREMIER FINANCE SERIES

VANDY MEETS THE STREET

Vandy Meets the Street is a networking and educational experience for Vanderbilt students interested in finance and connecting with alumni, employers, and parents. Attendees will hear about trends on Wall Street & best practices from top-ranked industry experts. This series is proudly hosted by the Career Center and Development & Alumni Relations, and features a multi-day trek to New York City.

VANDERBILT
Career Center

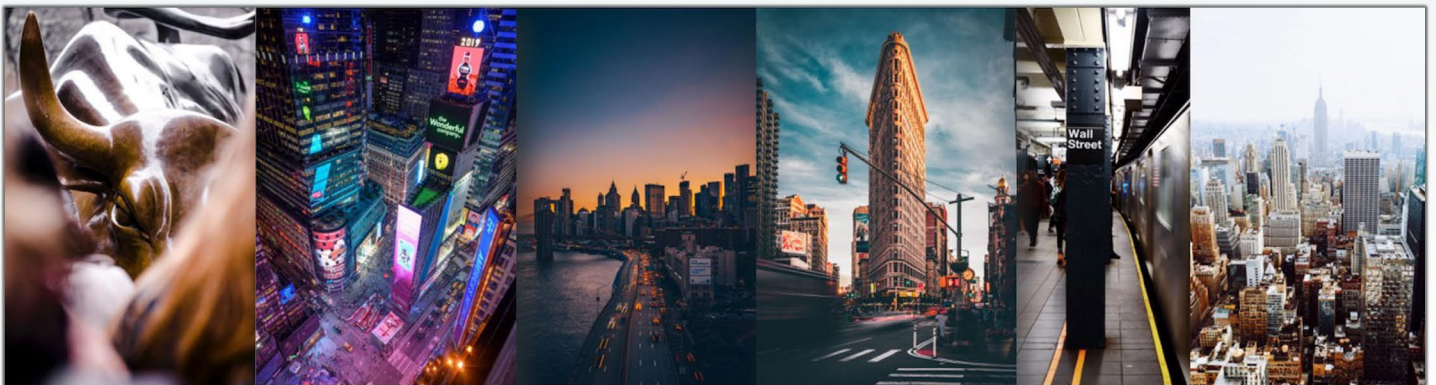

EVENT OVERVIEW

Making meaningful connections is vital for students interested in the finance industry. On-site events help students create a strong network, gain insight and expertise from seasoned professionals, and help us to create a sense of community among students interested in finance. Join us in New York City for this dynamic multi-day trek, featuring exciting site visits to some of the top finance employers. Hear from Vanderbilt alumni as they share insights and share their diverse experiences in the industry.

TIMELINE

July: Summer kick-off event in NYC
September – November: Fall special guest speakers
October: VMS Corporate Inclusion Trek in NYC
January – April: Spring special guest speakers
May: Wall Street send-off party for seniors

“Vandy Meets the Street was a great opportunity to connect with accomplished Vanderbilt alumni in finance and catch up with fellow students.”
- Jacqueline Shell, economics major

Questions? Contact Grace Foy, Director of Career Center Innovation, at grace.foy@vanderbilt.edu