7. Please provide a description of your project, not to exceed 500 words: *

The Curb Center awards Creative Inquiry Grants for projects that center art as a tool for engaging with questions, narratives, and challenges facing their communities. In your description, please describe your creative/artistic project and the Vanderbilt- or public-facing impact you envision it will have. Please note that the Curb Center does not fund the following types of award requests: travel funds, resources for class assignments, or requests for professional development funds.

8. Please tell us about any Vanderbilt-affiliated and/or community-based collaborators (individuals or organizations) on your project, if applicable.

9. What is the proposed timeline for your project? Timeline should include major milestones in the project's development, implementation, and evaluation. *

Projects must be completed, expenses reconciled, and reports submitted by Friday, May 2, 2025.

10. What award amount are you applying for? *

Undergraduate students can apply for up to $500, graduate students can apply for up to $1500, and faculty/staff can apply for up to $2500.

11. Please upload a detailed breakdown of your proposed budget here. *

Please provide a detailed breakdown in a table format of how you plan to use funds from the Curb Center. If your project's total budget exceeds the Curb Center's award amount, please include the total budget, a breakdown of how Curb funds would be applied to your project, and other potential or confirmed funding sources.
