A World of Discovery

Established by Julius Caesar in 59 B.C., and beloved by Leonardo da Vinci and Michelangelo, Florence and its environs! Consider a visit to the splendid, art-filled churches or the Pitti Palace topped by Brunelleschi’s magnificent dome. Turn your journey into an art tour with an expert guide who will transport you back in time to the Italian Renaissance. Stroll through the city’s narrow streets, marvel at the Uffizi Gallery’s art treasures, and gain an intimate look at the city on a guided walk.

Unwrap your Tuscan experience during this fascinating tour. Stand in awe of the marble statues of Michelangelo, his timeless work "David." Then take the time to explore the truly magnificent dome of the Cathedral of Santa Maria del Fiore, where Brunelleschi’s engineering brilliance is on full display.

Marvel at the breathtaking Giotto’s Campanile at Piazza della Signoria, topped by the ancient bell tower that offers stunning views of Florence cityscape.
