Dear Vanderbilt Alumni, Family and Friends,

Join Vanderbilt on a journey through the vibrant cities of Spain, where centuries of captivating history, stunning architecture, and rich cultural experiences await. Discover the lively spirit of Madrid, wander through the enchanting streets of Toledo, admire the grandeur of Granada's Alhambra, explore the treasures of Córdoba, and soak in the heritage of Seville.

Your adventure begins in Madrid, where you'll wander through historic streets and visit iconic sites like Alcalá Gate, Retiro Park, and the Gran Vía. Dive into Spain's artistic heritage with a guided tour of the renowned Prado Museum, home to masterpieces by El Greco, Velázquez, Goya, and others.

Step back in time in Toledo, known as the "city of three cultures," where Christian, Muslim, and Jewish traditions have left an indelible mark on its stunning architecture. Prepare to be amazed by the beauty of Granada's Alhambra, once the hilltop fortress-palace of the Nasrid Kings, the last Muslim rulers in Spain, and a true masterpiece of art and architecture. Explore Córdoba and visit the extraordinary Great Mosque, or "Mezquita," a striking blend of Islamic and Christian influences that defines the city's history. In Seville, uncover the treasures of the majestic Real Alcázar, and venture to the ancient coastal city of Cádiz, where you'll be charmed by its enduring beauty and sweeping ocean views.

Spaces on this unforgettable trip are limited, so secure your spot now to experience the rich history and vibrant culture of Spain's most remarkable destinations.

Sincerely,

Cary DeWitt Allyn

Itinerary

DAY 1 TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 9

U.S. • Madrid

Depart your home city for an overnight flight to Madrid.
(MEALS ALOFT)

DAY 2 WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 10

Arrive Madrid

Arrive in Madrid, and transfer to our hotel. This evening, gather for an orientation followed by a welcome dinner.
HOTEL MELIA MADRID OR SIMILAR (D)

DAY 3 THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11

Madrid & Prado Museum

This morning, we delve into the heart of Madrid, one of the world's most vibrant capital cities. A city tour takes us to iconic sites including Alcalá Gate, Retiro Park, Neptuno Square, and Gran Vía Street. We'll enjoy a guided visit to the renowned Prado Museum, home to some of the world's most important artworks by Spanish masters such as El Greco, Velázquez and Goya. Learn about the fascinating history of the original building, and how it was transformed into a leading art museum. Following lunch, enjoy some free time to relax at the hotel, or continue exploring the city on your own.
HOTEL MELIA MADRID OR SIMILAR (B, L)

DAY 4 FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 12

Toledo

Step back in time with a visit to the enchanting city of Toledo, also known as the "city of three cultures." Here, Christian, Muslim and Jewish communities peacefully coexisted for centuries, leaving behind a wealth of artistic and cultural legacies that make it one of the most unique cities in the world. As we explore the winding streets of the old quarter, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, we'll see beautiful examples of Mudéjar (Christian-Muslim) architecture blending various cultural and period elements and visit the Cathedral, the Jewish Quarter, Santa María la Blanca Synagogue and Santo Tomé Church.

HOTEL MELIA MADRID OR SIMILAR (B, L)

DAY 5 SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 13

Madrid

Embark on a walking tour through the winding streets of Madrid's historic city center, where we'll discover some of the most emblematic places in the city, including Plaza de la Villa, Plaza Mayor, Puerta del Sol, and Plaza de Oriente. We'll visit the Palacio Real, the largest royal palace in western Europe measuring 1,450,000 square feet and made up of 3,418 rooms. As the official residence of the royal family, it plays host to some of the most important state receptions and ceremonies of the Crown. A tour of the interior transports you to a world of opulence and grandeur, with exquisite architectural details and rooms filled with musical instruments, including several Stradivarius violins, beautiful collections of porcelain, and paintings by such artists as Goya, Caravaggio and Velázquez. Enjoy a tapas-style lunch before enjoying the remainder of the day at leisure.

HOTEL MELIA MADRID OR SIMILAR (B, L)

DAY 6 SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 14

Madrid • Granada

Your morning is free to relax or explore on your own. This afternoon, we'll take a train to Granada. After checking in to our hotel, you'll have some leisure time before gathering for dinner at a local restaurant. HOTEL VILLA ONIRIA OR SIMILAR (B, D)

DAY 7 MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 15

Granada

Today we will explore the Alhambra complex, Spain's most captivating attraction and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This hilltop fortress-palace of the Nasrid kings, the last Muslim rulers in Spain, is a true masterpiece of art and architecture. Admire the intricate designs, delicate details, and exquisite beauty of this unique building, which represents the pinnacle of Islamic creativity. Our tour will take us through the lush harem gardens and fountains of the Generalife, the summer palace of the Sultans, with breathtaking views of the Sierra Nevada and the city of Granada below. We'll continue to the Albayzín quarter of Granada for a brief walking tour of this picturesque, historic neighborhood with views of the Alhambra. This afternoon, visit the Royal Chapel, where Ferdinand and Isabella are buried, to behold the culmination of Spanish art and architecture. HOTEL VILLA ONIRIA OR SIMILAR (B, L)

DAY 8 TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 16

Granada • Córdoba • Seville

This morning we'll depart for Córdoba by bus. Founded by the Romans, Córdoba became a port of great importance used for shipping Spanish oil, wine, and wheat back to Ancient Rome. However, its greatest legacy came in the 8th century as the capital of the kingdom of El-Andalus, when construction began on the magnificent Great Mosque, or "Mezquita." On our visit to the Mezquita, we'll admire the stunning architectural features including a forest of horseshoe arches, intricate mosaics, and unique blend of Islamic and Christian influences. Continue to the historic quarter of Córdoba, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, for lunch at a local restaurant before driving to Seville.

HOTEL MELIA SEVILLA OR SIMILAR (B, L)

DAY 9 WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 17

Seville

Depart on a tour of Seville, a charming city with a rich heritage, situated on the banks of the Guadalquivir River. We'll visit the Real Alcázar, a royal palace from the 14th century displaying one of the greatest examples of Mudéjar (Christian-Muslim) architecture. We'll see the General Archive of the Indies, which houses archival documents illustrating the history of the Spanish Empire in the Americas and Asia. We'll also visit the magnificent Santa Maria de la Sede, the largest Gothic cathedral in the world, built on the site of a 12th century mosque of which only the minaret, known as the Giralda, remains. We'll complete our tour with a stroll through Seville's historical Jewish quarter, following the labyrinth of narrow streets and alleyways dating back to the 13th century. This evening, enjoy dinner and a lively flamenco show. HOTEL MELIA SEVILLA OR SIMILAR (B, D)

DAY 10 THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 18

Seville • Cádiz • Seville

Today we'll enjoy a taste of southern Spain's countryside with a day trip to Cádiz, located on a slender peninsula along the Andalusian coastline. As the oldest city in Western Europe, its storied history permeates every street and plaza, where ancient Roman ruins coexist harmoniously with Islamic influences and Baroque architecture. This vibrant city invites
