

Thank You

Jim Cooper!

Thank you for your years of public service in Congress on behalf of Middle Tennessee and the nation.

For championing investments that make innovation and the advancement of health possible.

And for your love of learning and telling the stories of science and discovery.

Your friends at Vanderbilt wish you all the best in your next endeavor!

