

Nashville Environmental Sustainability

Photo Contest

The Mayor's Sustainability Advisory Committee is seeking photographs that represent Nashville's environmental successes and opportunities. Photos may include a range of environmental issues, impacts, or solutions. Entries will be judged on relevance to the theme, as well as composition, originality, and technical quality, and will include open voting by the public. Winners will be exhibited online and throughout various venues around Nashville. The contest is open to residents of Davidson and surrounding counties.

Call for Entries: December 15, 2022 - February 15, 2023

Notification of Winners: April 15, 2023

Theme Categories: Energy ▪ Transportation ▪ Natural Resources ▪ Buildings ▪ Waste ▪ Resilience ▪ Environmental Justice

Entrant Categories: Under 12 ▪ 12 – 18 years ▪ 18 and older

Visit our website for complete contest rules and to upload your photos:

<https://www.nashville.gov/departments/mayor/sustainability-resilience-environment/photo-contest>

Copyrights & Usage Rights: The artists participating in the competition grant Metro

Nashville the right to use these photographs to promote the competition on its website, social media, newsletter, catalogues, exhibition or through its partners. However, the copyright is retained.

