

The Program in Culture, Advocacy & Leadership presents

International Folkloric Ballet

Majestad Negra

(Black Majesty)

performing Bomba, traditional Afro-Puerto Rican music & dance

Friday, August 30, 2024

Alumni Lawn
Vanderbilt University

4:30 pm food trucks & opening remarks

5:00 pm performance begins

Free & open to the public, but tickets required

Bring your own lawn chair or blanket!

Co-sponsored by the Provost's Arts, Discovery, and Innovation Fund; Vanderbilt University Libraries; Vanderbilt's Office of Government and Community Relations; the Curb Center; the College of Arts & Science Dean's Office; the Robert Penn Warren Center for the Humanities; the Cities Grand Challenge Initiative; the Center for Latin American, Caribbean, and Latinx Studies; and the Departments of Anthropology, Earth and Environmental Sciences, and Sociology.

VANDERBILT
College of Arts and Science
Program in Culture, Advocacy and Leadership

