

GRADUATE FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

GRADUATE SCHOOL, GRADUATE LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE (GLI), AND GRADUATE STUDENT COUNCIL GRANTS

The Graduate Leadership Institute (GLI) is committed to supporting students in their leadership and professional development endeavors. Funding is now available for those who are interested in leading on campus through programming and events for graduate students; for those who are pushing their research beyond the fundamentals required by their committee; for those who are being intentional in their overall training and pursuing professional development and training opportunities beyond Vanderbilt.

<https://gradschool.vanderbilt.edu/funding/travel.php>

<https://gradschool.vanderbilt.edu/gli/funding/>

GRADUATE SCHOOL CONFERENCE TRAVEL GRANT

Students are encouraged to present their research at major regional, national, and international conferences. The Graduate School Travel Grant to Present Research will provide up to $1,000 in travel support for graduate students presenting their research at major regional, national, and international conferences. Students may apply for one travel grant per budget year (July 1-June 30) for domestic or international travel. Students are allowed a total of three travel grants during their tenure at Vanderbilt. Applications must be submitted at least two weeks prior to the start of travel.

<https://gradschool.vanderbilt.edu/gli/gstravel/>

GLI DISSERTATION ENHANCEMENT GRANTS

The GLI provides awards of up to $2,000 for research expenses related to a student's dissertation. These funds are granted on a competitive basis and are designed to support PhD Students with outstanding potential to accelerate progress on their research, adding depth or breadth to their work.

<https://gradschool.vanderbilt.edu/gli/deg/>

GLI PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND TRAINING GRANTS

The GLI will provide up to $1,000 of support for graduate students seeking non-credit bearing professional development and training opportunities to further develop their academic and professional skills. Eligible activities include, but are not limited to, training workshops, short courses, conferences (where the student has not submitted an abstract*), etc. Additionally, opportunities that will broaden the applicant's skill set beyond their academic field of study (i.e. leadership training, project management short course, etc.) are encouraged.

<https://gradschool.vanderbilt.edu/gli/pdt/>

GLI GRADUATE STUDENT PROGRAMMING GRANT

The Graduate Leadership Institute Programming Grant was established to support student-organized programs and events that will enhance the graduate student experience at Vanderbilt. Awards of up to $2000 will be granted through this funding opportunity. Additional funds may be available should the scale and impact of the program be deemed exceptional.

<https://gradschool.vanderbilt.edu/gli/programming-grants/>

GRADUATE STUDENT COUNCIL TRAVEL GRANT

The Graduate Student Council offers a travel grant up to $500 given to five students each semester. The travel awards are intended to aid students in covering travel expenses related to attending academic conferences, symposia, workshops, etc. Funds are only available to students who will be presenting personal research. To qualify, students must be active members of GSC.

<https://studentorg.vanderbilt.edu/gsc/travel-grants/>

<https://studentorg.vanderbilt.edu/gsc/travel-funding-request/>

COLLEGE OF ARTS & SCIENCE

LIST OF INTERNAL & EXTERNAL FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

<https://as.vanderbilt.edu/internal/graduate/funding.php>

SUMMER RESEARCH AND TRAINING AWARDS

College of Arts and Science Summer Research Awards (SRA) provide funds for research expenses related to the doctoral thesis, other advanced research projects, or scholarly activities that significantly advance professional development.

<https://as.vanderbilt.edu/internal/graduate/summer-research-award.php>

EARTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCES

ALBERSTADT-REESMAN-STEARNES FUND

The Alberstadt-Reesman-Stearns Fund is provided by a generous endowed gift to the department from its alumni. The gift was granted to the department in support of research and field studies for both graduate and undergraduate students. All EES majors and graduate students are eligible to apply for these funds.

<https://redcap.link/student-ars>

