

MONEY TALKS, MONEY WALKS FAITH AND MONEY

A novel, 12-week virtual learning space for Vanderbilt professional-degree students sponsored by the Cal Turner Program for Moral Leadership.

FRIDAYS, 10:30-12 NOON CST

These learning space modules will combine theological, philosophical, and theoretical approaches to money with practical application for personal and organizational finances through three mini-series on Faith and Money, Personal and Organizational Finances, and The Financial Big Picture.

FAITH APPROACHES TO MONEY - SEPT. 11TH

This session will discuss Jewish and Christian perspectives on money as it pertains to sustenance and creation of mission and value for individuals of faith and their communities.

Register here.

FINANCIAL FRUGALITY FOR JUSTICE AND LIBERATION - SEPT. 18TH

Lean financial living is a great way to be able to tithe, redistribute, and give back. We'll talk about some tips and reasons for doing so financially.

Register here.

ABUNDANCE AND ETHICAL ECONOMICS - SEPT. 25TH

How do we think of financial resources ethically and hopefully? Likely Dr. Jeorg Rieger of the Wendland-Cook Program for Religion and Justice will lead this session.

Register here.

MONEY STORIES AND LESSONS LEARNED- OCT. 2ND

Money stories, attitudes, and habits learned from our families, often simultaneously bring up feelings of shame, guilt, pride and gratitude. How do we cope and also strive to do better?

Register here.

QUESTIONS?
CONTACT CTP ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
LAINE.C.WALTERS.YOUNG@VANDERBILT.EDU

MONEY TALKS, MONEY WALKS PERSONAL AND ORG FINANCES

A novel, 12-week virtual learning space for Vanderbilt professional-degree students sponsored by the Cal Turner Program for Moral Leadership.

FRIDAYS, 10:30-12 NOON CST

These learning space modules will combine theological, philosophical, and theoretical approaches to money with practical application for personal and organizational finances through three mini-series on Faith and Money, Personal and Organizational Finances, and The Financial Big Picture.

BUDGETING BASICS - OCT. 9TH

This session will discuss and share basic budgeting practices which uphold accountability, aim for faithfulness in values and priorities, and lead in vision.

Register here.

FINANCIAL LITERACY AND WEALTH MANAGEMENT - OCT. 16TH

Learn the basics of debt, credit, balances and estate planning with our banking partners.

Register here.

MAKING PRIORITIES AND PHILANTHROPY - OCT. 23RD

How do we use financial organizing and fundraising as tools for justice and philanthropic giving in our own lives and in our organizations?

Register here.

MAKING PERSONAL MONEY VISION BOARDS - OCT. 30TH

What is your relationship to money and your current personal financial picture? What do you envision as your relationship to money after you graduate? What do you want it to be?

Register here.

QUESTIONS?
CONTACT CTP ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
LAINE.C.WALTERS.YOUNG@VANDERBILT.EDU

MONEY TALKS, MONEY WALKS THE FINANCIAL BIG PICTURE

A novel, 12-week virtual learning space for Vanderbilt professional-degree students sponsored by the Cal Turner Program for Moral Leadership.

FRIDAYS, 10:30-12 NOON CST

These learning space modules will combine theological, philosophical, and theoretical approaches to money with practical application for personal and organizational finances through three mini-series on Faith and Money, Personal and Organizational Finances, and The Financial Big Picture.

FINANCIALIZATION AND MACROECONOMICS - NOV. 6TH

This session will explore big economic trends such as the split between the labor market and the stock market, the financialization of global capital, and increasing economic inequality.

Register here.

FINANCIAL DISCRIMINATION - NOV. 13TH

Financial discrimination in lending, home-buying and fair pay is an historic and contemporary reality. Gain some awareness and tips on countering these practices.

Register here.

FINANCING GRADUATE EDUCATION - NOV. 20TH

The cost of higher education has skyrocketed in recent generations and can price you out of being able to work in certain fields or for causes because of loans.

Register here.

BUSTING WEALTH BUILDING MYTHS - DEC. 4TH

This session will examine the different ways wealth is accumulated, such as saving and capital investment, and dispel common myths.

Register here.

QUESTIONS?
CONTACT CTP ASSISTANT DIRECTOR
LAINE.C.WALTERS.YOUNG@VANDERBILT.EDU