

Prof. F. Peter Guengerich

After more than 30 years, I have relinquished my administrative responsibilities. I am still involved in teaching and editorial work but most of my time is spent interacting with the individuals in the research group, including expansion of our research into some new areas. When I do get to work in the lab, I am primarily involved in spectroscopy, synthesis, product analysis, and kinetics, primarily in the P450 projects.

