

The Office for Equity, Diversity and Inclusion Presents

Inspiring Radical Creativity

GABBY RIVERA

Award-winning author of Juliet Takes a Breath and America, the first Marvel series to feature a queer teen-girl superhero

Monday, September 24

Keynote and Q&A

Inspiring Radical Creativity:
Empowering Young, Diverse Voices
to Tell Their Own Stories

Sarratt Cinema | 4:00–5:30 p.m.

Book signing and reception to follow

Tuesday, September 25

Meet and Greet

The Wond'ry | 8:00–9:15 a.m.

Continental breakfast to follow

Writers' Workshop

The Wond'ry | 9:30–11:30 a.m.

Online registration required. Space is limited. Register by Wed., Sept. 12, at vu.edu/gabbyriveraworkshop

For more information, please contact Tiffany Terrell, EDI Program Coordinator, at tiffany.h.terrell@vanderbilt.edu or visit vanderbilt.edu/equity-diversity-inclusion.

ASL will be provided for the Keynote only. Persons who need additional accommodations or who have questions about physical access may call the Office for Equity, Diversity and Inclusion at 615-343-2644 at least 12 hours in advance of the program.