

Diversify Sponsorship of Your Research

Monday, October 9, 2017

12:30–3:30 p.m.

Kissam Center, Room C216

Register for the event by October 2 at vunih2nsf.eventbrite.com

Researchers familiar with the National Institutes of Health will learn how to apply for funding from the National Science Foundation and diversify their research portfolios. Faculty with experience applying to both NIH and NSF will present their success stories and offer advice for how to make the transition. Panelists will cover the best tips for applying to NSF and answer questions from the audience. The event will conclude with a networking reception.

FACULTY PRESENTERS AND PANELISTS

Peter Cummings, John R. Hall Professor of Chemical Engineering and Associate Dean for Research in the School of Engineering

David Dickinson, Professor of Teaching and Learning and Associate Dean for Research and Strategic Planning in Peabody College

Jens Meiler, Professor of Chemistry

Padma Raghavan, Vice Provost for Research and Professor of Computer Science and Computer Engineering

Charles Sanders, Professor of Biochemistry and Associate Dean for Research in the Basic Sciences of the School of Medicine

Keivan G. Stassun, Stevenson Professor of Astrophysics and Senior Associate Dean for Graduate Education and Research in the College of Arts and Science

Frank Tong, Professor of Psychology

Jamey Young, Associate Professor of Chemical and Biomolecular Engineering and Molecular Physiology and Biophysics

Register for the event by October 2 at vunih2nsf.eventbrite.com.

For more information about this event, please contact L-POD@vanderbilt.edu.

VANDERBILT  UNIVERSITY