

NATIONAL

COMING

OUT

WEEK at

VANDERBILT

UNIVERSITY

OCTOBER 2015

"Be You at VU"

5

Rainbow Commons Kick-Off

4-6pm, Commons South Patio. Join the Dean's Commons Staff & LGBTQI Life for free cook-out food and community as we celebrate the start of National Coming Out Week.

6

Coming Out Stories

7pm, Divinity School. Come to a brave space to experience stories of coming out and possibly share your own. Co-sponsored by GABLE and the Lambda Association.

7

Screening of Stonewall Uprising

6pm, Kissam Multi-Purpose Room. Experience one portrayal of the Stonewall Riots in the media. Stick around afterwards to debrief and discuss with faculty members Melanie Adley and Aimi Hamraie. Free popcorn!

8

Lambda Drag Show

8-10pm, Student Life Center Ballrooms. You will not want to miss the 21st Annual Drag Show sponsored by the Lambda Association! This event is free and open to the public.

9

Rainbow Cake Celebration

12-1:30pm, K.C. Potter Center. Celebrate the success of National Coming Out Week with a delicious piece of rainbow cake!

11

Interfaith Social

1-3pm, Sevier Park on 12 South. Come together with Nashville Interfaith for Equality for food trucks, outdoor activities, and learning more about LGBTQI-welcoming faith communities!

12

iLens Screening of 108 Cuchillo de Palo

7pm, Sarratt Cinema. Learn about sexuality in 1980s Paraguay while watching this iLens featured film. Discussion afterwards to be facilitated by faculty member Clint Hendrix. Co-sponsored by the Center for Latin American Studies.

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY

DEAN OF STUDENTS

#BeYouatVU

Follow us on Instagram and Twitter @vulgbtqilife