

Golden September

There was much joy on West End Avenue this fall as Vanderbilt won its first four football games, a feat unmatched since 1984. The team received national coverage during its winning streak and played before wildly enthusiastic Vanderbilt crowds, but the spell was broken by Middle Tennessee State University in Vanderbilt's fifth game of the season. Pictured here, the 'Dores celebrate their third consecutive victory on Sept. 17 against Ole Miss. Photo by Neil Brake.
