

VANDERBILT Divinity School

Initiated 12/18/2023

Digital Displays

Digital displays are designed to advertise Vanderbilt Divinity School (VDS)-sponsored events, to welcome guests at special receptions, and to promote a sense of community among VDS' many constituencies.

Digital display content should be limited to VDS business. Requests for displays may originate from Vanderbilt University departments and schools, Vanderbilt University Medical Center, VDS faculty and staff, VDS alumni, registered student organizations – see Exhibit A, and off-campus community partners. Great care should be exercised when reviewing requests. If in doubt, consult with the Dean.

Exceptions to this policy must be approved by the VDS Dean or designee.

All student groups are encouraged to register their organization annually with the Office of Student Organizations, Leadership, and Service in order to be recognized by the University as a registered student organization (RSO). Registration must be completed by an INCOMING officer who will hold their position in the new academic year. All Registered Student Organizations (RSOs) are entitled to the following privileges (<https://www.vanderbilt.edu/studentorgs/registering-your-org/>):

- Financial support from the University (Student Services Fee allocation, and other sources when available)
- Use of University facilities for conducting regular business. Student organizations are prohibited from establishing offices, social spaces, or living quarters, off-campus
- Use of University meeting rooms and facilities at no charge or at a reduced rate
- Use of University electronic resources (e.g., Anchor Link, listservs, University-hosted website), and member subscription to the student leader listservs maintained by SOLS
- Use of common space and storage space allocated for registered student organizations
- Opportunity to solicit funds from, or make sales to, members of the University community on campus
- Participation in the annual Student Involvement Fair and other programs promoting participation hosted by the University
- Opportunity to advertise and promote the organization and its purposes on campus, and to advertise in Student Affairs-supported publications and other media
- Ability to publish events on Anchor Link and in the University Events Calendar
- Use of the official registered student organization mark, which incorporates the Vanderbilt University logo, official University spirit marks, and the name "Vanderbilt University," or titles indicating institutional affiliation, such as "Black and Gold," "VU," or "Commodore," for purposes generally consistent with the organizations' purposes and their usual activities or to identify themselves as campus groups (See Marketing and Communications policy for more information)
