PARKING

PARKING OPTIONS

Vanderbilt offers both a daily and an annual parking program that includes four parking locations. In the daily program, participants pay to park only on days they drive a vehicle to campus. Only daily parking participants have access to the daily parking facilities and are eligible for sustainable commute incentives and programs.

- Existing daily parking program participants: If you are already enrolled, you do not need to reapply.
- New applicants: Applications are continually accepted on a rolling basis. You must apply by Wednesday at noon to begin daily parking by the end of that week.

RIDE THE BUS FREE WITH YOUR COMMODORE CARD

All full-time and part-time Vanderbilt University students, faculty, staff and postdocs can ride WeGo local and regional buses, paratransit services and the WeGo Star free of charge at any time. You can use the QuickTicket by WeGo app to ride WeGo anytime, anywhere on their buses or trains, after registering your account and activating the Vanderbilt University WeGo Ride program. Visit vu.edu/bus for detailed QuickTicket account registration.

WeGo Bus Information

If you have additional questions or would like more help considering your best options, contact movevu@vanderbilt.edu.

Daily Parking Program

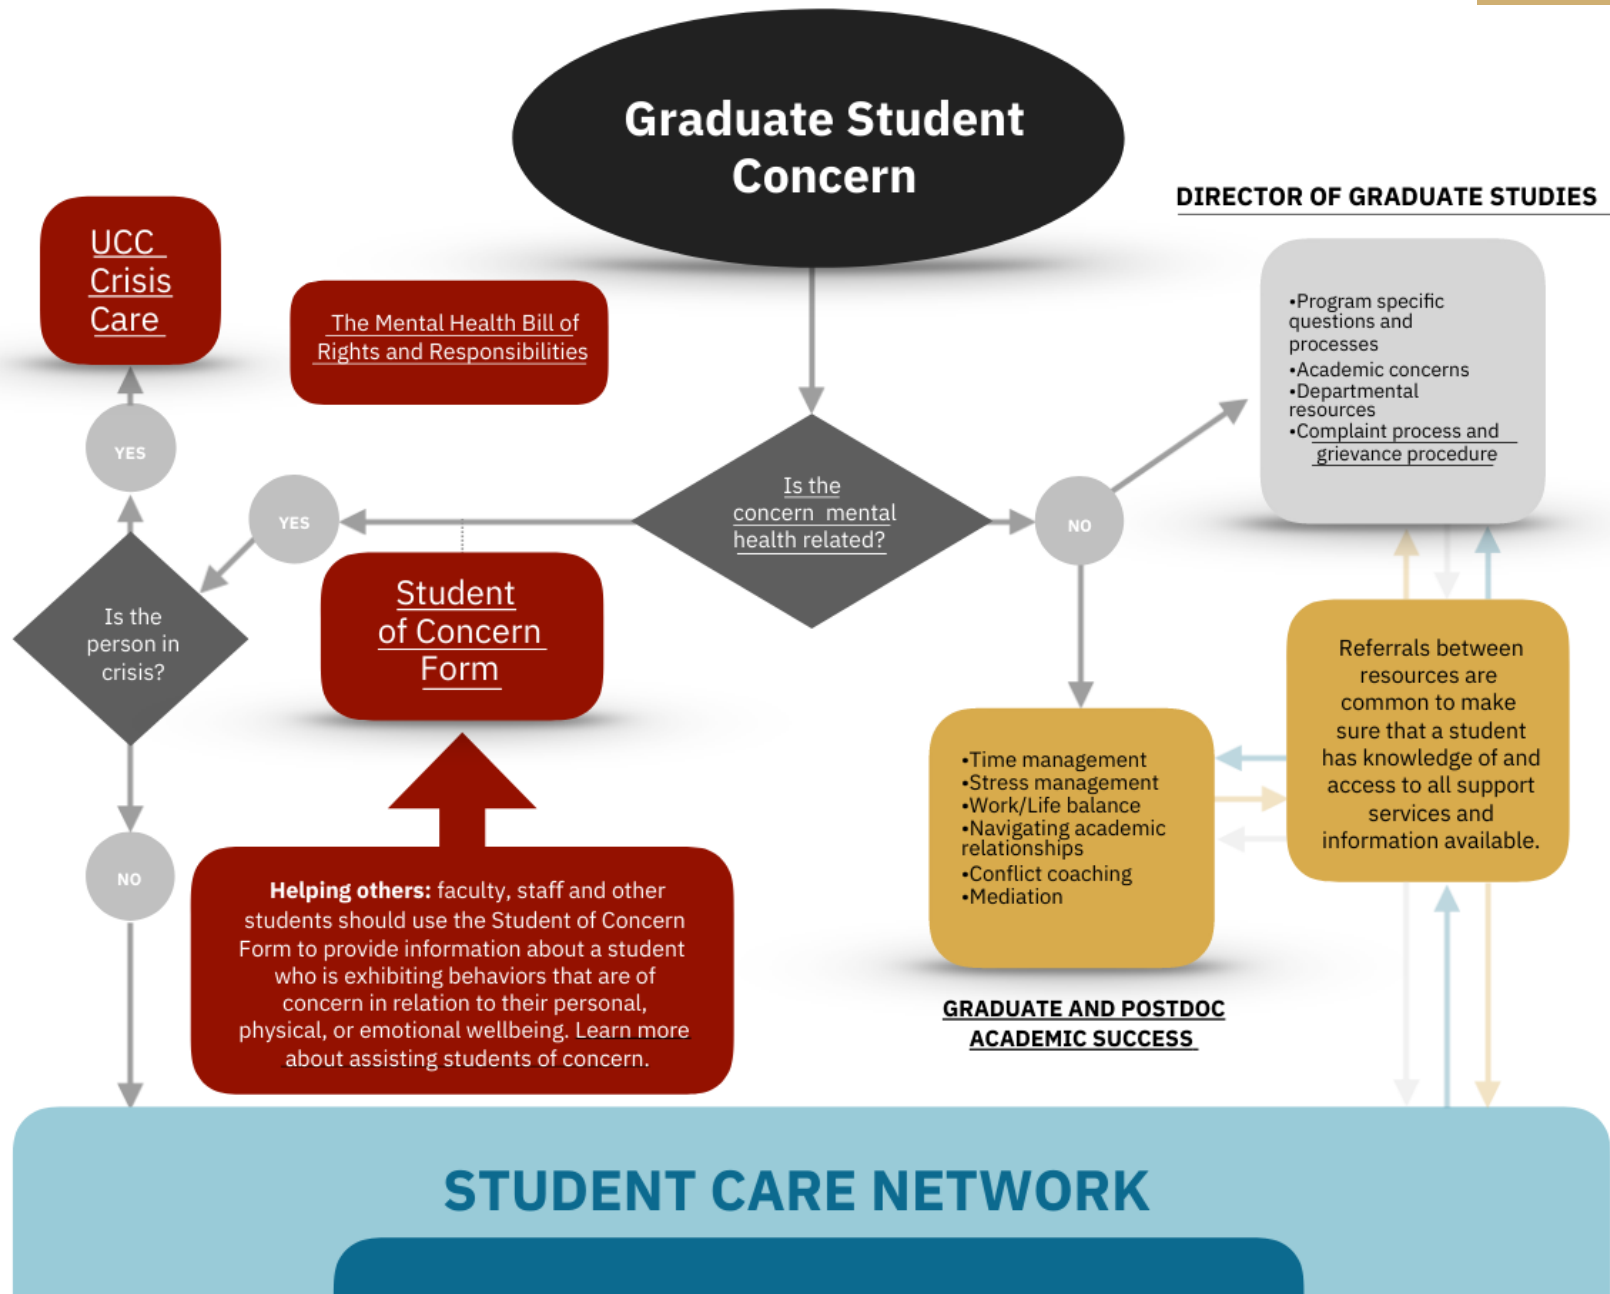

Individuals with annual permits can park in any non-reserved parking space in an annual permit lot on campus.

Other Resources/
Providers

New appointments for UCC services, including therapy and medication management, are managed through the Office of Student Care Coordination (OSCC). After completion of an intake form, the OSCC Care Coordinators will assess a student's needs in an in-person or telephone meeting and connect them to the most appropriate resources, including the University Counseling Center, to meet those needs.

The CSW and SHC are available for direct access. Students are not required to go through Student Care Coordination.

- Student care is a team-based approach—students can utilize as many of the resources needed to support them.
- If you are unsure of the best resource based on this guide, please contact the Graduate School.

Mandatory Reporting

Procedure is in addition to any and all resources needed for the student's wellbeing.

Title IX & Student Discrimination

Note: Confidential information is not shared between resources, except when approved by the student to assist in processes unless a mandatory reporting procedure supersedes.

Student Access Services

To receive reasonable accommodations for a disability at Vanderbilt, students are to apply for services through the Access Center.

Project SAFE

Is here for those impacted by sexual harassment, sexual assault, intimate partner violence, stalking and more.

MISSION

The mission of the Graduate School at Vanderbilt University is to promote excellence in research, scholarship, and creative expression such that graduates are optimally prepared for successful careers in academia, industry, and related fields. We do so by recruiting the most promising students from a diverse set of backgrounds and creating an inclusive and stimulating environment that fosters intellectual growth and development. We emphasize intensive, disciplinary-specific, and interdisciplinary training, taking advantage of Vanderbilt's uniquely collaborative and collegial culture.

OFFICE OF POSTDOCTORAL AFFAIRS (OPA)

The Office of Postdoctoral Affairs is responsible for planning and managing programs and services for Vanderbilt's postdoctoral community. OPA supports Vanderbilt-affiliated postdocs as well as faculty and staff administrators who work with the postdoctoral population. OPA is the central resource for postdoctoral services and serves as a liaison among postdocs and central university administrative offices.

GSC

The Graduate Student Council (GSC) has two primary goals: (1) to coordinate a range of academic, service, and social activities for the graduate community; and (2) to ascertain and represent graduate student opinions and concerns by facilitating communication between graduate students, faculty, and administration. We strive to promote community amongst graduate students, as well as graduate student integration into the university community. All graduate students are welcome to attend and participate in GSC meetings, social events, and academic events.

THE STUDENT CARE NETWORK

Access to a wide range of physical and mental health resources on-campus and in the community

Student Health Center

OFFICE OF STUDENT CARE COORDINATION (OSCC)

Student Care Coordination is the central and first point of contact for students who may have an academic, personal, emotional, medical, and/or other concern. Student Care Coordinators connect students with resources within Vanderbilt's Student Care Network and/or the Nashville community that best address their needs. It's important to note that care coordination is not counseling or therapy.

Student Care Coordination

UNIVERSITY COUNSELING CENTER (UCC)

The UCC supports the mental health needs of Vanderbilt students, encouraging their work toward their academic and personal goals. Our highly skilled and multidisciplinary staff develop evidence-based treatment plans tailored to each individual's unique background and needs by working together with students, campus partners, and community providers.

UCC

CENTER FOR STUDENT WELLBEING (CSW)

The CSW strives to create a culture that supports the personal development and academic success of students using an integrative, holistic framework. Through inclusive and collaborative programming, support services, and campus initiatives, the Center cultivates engagement in lifelong wellbeing practices that enhance students' ability to thrive within the Vanderbilt community and beyond.

OEDD

OFFICE OF EDUCATIONAL DESIGN AND DEVELOPMENT

The Office of Educational Design and Development offerings are available to all graduate students, including those teaching at Vanderbilt as teaching assistants (TAs) and instructors of record, as well as those who anticipate that teaching will be a part of their future careers. Programs for graduate students include the Teaching Assistant Organization, the Academy of College Teaching, and the Course Design Institute. The office also offers professional development workshops on a variety of topics and a range of confidential consultation services for instructors interested in reflecting on their teaching experiences.

ELC

ENGLISH LANGUAGE CENTER

The Vanderbilt University English Language Center supports the university's internationalization, diversity, equity, and inclusion efforts through engaging English for Academic and Professional language instruction and targeted resources for international students, faculty, staff, and scholars who use English as an additional language. Our goal is to help you achieve the most from your Vanderbilt experience by providing innovative, high quality, individualized English-language instruction.

MAY

Write On!

Do you want to make more progress toward your writing goals every semester? Write On! includes programming to help you set achievable goals, establish routines, and meet deadlines within a framework of support and accountability within the Vanderbilt community. The goal is to help graduate students and postdocs develop a daily writing habit that will benefit them in their academic career at Vanderbilt and beyond. For more information contact gpas@vanderbilt.edu.

Library

LIBRARIES

The libraries provide electronic access to tens of thousands of full-text journals, more than 1.5 million e-books, data and information resources. The website provides a portal to premium and valuable content, information about library services, workshops, programs, exhibits, research guides and librarian subject expertise, who provide help in their discipline. Students can connect with a librarian in person, via email or virtually. Workshops on specialized research topics, including using citation management software, selecting open source digital research tools, managing copyright in publishing, and more are available.

- Vanderbilt VERTICES PREP Program
- The Vanderbilt Summer Science Academy for undergraduate students
- The Vanderbilt Program in Molecular Medicine (VPMM)
- The Initiatives for Maximizing Student Diversity (IMSD)

The BRET Office organizes and hosts a Responsible Conduct of Research training day each spring for Vanderbilt researchers and trainees.

RPWC

ROBERT PENN WARREN (RPW) CENTER FOR THE HUMANITIES

The RPW Center serves as the hub for interdisciplinary research in the humanities and social sciences on campus. As part of its mission, the center offers a variety of programs and fellowship opportunities to enhance graduate student research and professional development.

Monthly seminars bring graduate students and faculty members together for rich conversations, guest speakers, and readings covering a wide range of topics. The center also offers two fellowship opportunities for graduate students: a dissertation completion fellowship for humanities students and a thematic fellowship that is open to graduate students from any field.

Visit our website to learn more about seminars and reading groups and fellowship opportunities, sign up for our newsletter, and follow us on Twitter (@RPWCenter) and Instagram (@rpw_center).

GRADUATE STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS/GROUPS

Anchor Link

Visit Anchor Link to join organizations and stay up to date on campus events!

BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION (BioSci GSA)

BioSci GSA fosters camaraderie among all graduate students in the Department of Biological Sciences by hosting social events throughout the year, helping recruit students to the program, and mentoring members during early phases of their graduate career.

BIostatISTICS GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION

We seek to facilitate an environment for students to engage in discussions regarding biostatistics and data science concepts in order to further their knowledge and understanding of the current state of the field.

CANCER BIOLOGY STUDENT ASSOCIATION (CBSA)

We provide a network through which graduate students may voice their opinions and enjoy the company of their peers.

CELL AND DEVELOPMENTAL BIOLOGY GSA (CDB GSA)

We are a space where graduate students can share cutting-edge research findings and develop essential skills for their careers. Through seminars, workshops, and networking events, we facilitate intellectual growth, scientific collaboration, and mentorship.

CHEMICAL BIOLOGY ASSOCIATION OF STUDENTS (CBAS)

CBAS' events and programming are open to all who want to learn more about chemical biology. The VICB symposium is our biggest event of the year.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION-DIVINITY AND GRADUATE SCHOOL

Fosters a community for international students at Vanderbilt University Divinity School and the Graduate Department of Religion. The organization visibly represents international students and works closely with the admissions office at VDS and GDR to connect with incoming international students and help them settle in Nashville.

KOREAN GRADUATE STUDENTS AND SCHOLARS ASSOCIATION (KSSA)

The KSSA shall represent the interests of the Korean community at Vanderbilt. KSSA supports the social activity of its members through opportunities for collegial social interaction between and among Korean graduate students, faculty, and the Vanderbilt community.

LATIN AMERICAN AND CARIBBEAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION (LACS)

LACS brings graduate students together from Latin America and the Caribbean Islands as well as those who are interested or passionate about these regions. We are an inclusive organization seeking to build community and cultural awareness.

LATINX SEMINARIANS (LAS)

We serve as a bridge for graduate students of Latin American and Caribbean heritage, to be a support system for international, current, and incoming students.

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION (MEGA)

Our organization is open to all Mechanical Engineering graduate students and offers opportunities for professional development and social connection, strengthening community ties across the department.

CHEMICAL ENGINEERING GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION (ChEGSA)

ChEGSA's purpose is to enhance the experience of graduate students within the department by (1) engendering camaraderie amongst the graduate students and (2) increasing student involvement in the department through student/faculty interactions.

COMMUNITY RESEARCH AND ACTION (CRA) STUDENT ASSOCIATION

Serves the needs of CRA graduate students and facilitates connection between CRA students and the wider university community. It serves as a forum for the discussion of matters pertaining to the well-being of graduate students, provide leadership opportunities for students, represent student opinions and concerns, foster unity and belonging through meetings and events (for CRA students as well as other graduate students, independently or through co-sponsorship), and aid in the recruitment of graduate students to the program and department.

DIVINITY STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The student governing body for Vanderbilt Divinity School.

EARTH AND ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE GRADUATE STUDENT ASSOCIATION (EES GSA)

Our organization's events ensure all EES graduate students have opportunities to socialize and bond with their peers outside of work. We also offer professional development programming when appropriate.

ENGINEERING AMBASSADOR NETWORK (EAN)

A service-based organization, consisting of both graduate and undergraduate students. It primarily works with Nashville based middle and high schools to get students excited about STEM. By having in-class interactive discussions and hands-on activities at schools around the Nashville area, the organization educates students on the importance of STEM careers and their broad impact on society. Sharing ideas and inspiring young students to challenge those ideas facilitates both the intellectual development of younger students and the growth of communication and leadership skills in Vanderbilt's EAN members.

INCLUSIVITY IN BIOSCIENCE ASSOCIATION (IBA)

IBA is dedicated to improving inclusivity in science outreach, research, and education. We host seminar speakers, hold workshops, and hold regular meetings involving discussions of topics that impact underrepresented minorities and women in the sciences..

NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR THE PROFESSIONAL ADVANCEMENT OF BLACK CHEMISTS AND CHEMICAL ENGINEERS
