

BOOK YOUR EVENT AT DYER OBSERVATORY

Vanderbilt Dyer Observatory is an exceptional venue nestled atop one of Nashville's highest hills.

Dyer's nine acres of verdant grounds feature a unique facility that easily accommodates personal and corporate functions such as retreats, concerts, dinner parties, award banquets, and fundraisers.

A beautiful domed library and access to spacious front and backyard plazas offer stunning views. The grounds can accommodate tents for large outdoor gatherings, and staging areas for concerts. All proceeds from rentals support Dyer's mission of offering educational and cultural offerings to the community.

Tented patio hosts
250-300

Library hosts
80-100

Breathtaking views

dyer.vanderbilt.edu/rentals

615-373-4897

Rentals available March through mid-December.

FEATURED VENUE SPACES

Observatory Library

Our library stylishly hosts retreats, workshops, receptions, and lectures. This space can be configured for a lecture, dinner, or cocktail party—with set up included in your rental. The catering area, just out of sight of guests, provides ample room and drive-up access for your event's catering staff.

- ✓ Dinner seating for 80 with eight 60" round tables
- ✓ Theater-style seating for 100
- ✓ Hosts 120 standing with high-top tables
- ✓ Audio/visual equipment

Covered Patio

The spacious, covered brick patio sits next to the library, providing a flexible space to expand for larger gatherings and a scenic view.

- ✓ Dinner seating for 250
- ✓ Hosts 300 standing with high-top tables
- ✓ Stage areas for band or DJ

❖ Make your event even more memorable with an optional add-on viewing/tour of the historic Seyfert Telescope.