

Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) Training Opportunity for NPs in Emergency Care

Vanderbilt University School of Nursing is excited to offer a unique training opportunity FREE to NPs working in emergency care settings. Supported by a federal grant, the ENPs-CARE program seeks to sustain a comprehensive sexual assault response by ENPs and address the shortage of Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner (SANE) providers in rural and underserved areas.

At no cost to participants, the ENPs-CARE program includes:

- 40 hour online, asynchronous didactic SANE training with CE
- 3-5 day in-person Clinical Competency Experience (CCE) supported by travel stipends
- Peer Support for your SANE clinical practice
- Quarterly one- hour educational activities with free CE
- Financial support to take the national SANE certification exam

Eligibility Criteria:

- Must be a nurse practitioner currently working in an emergency department or urgent care setting
- Must commit to the completion of all program components
- Preference given to NPs practicing in rural areas and/or with underserved populations
- A recorded information session is available.
- To register and also for any questions, please contact Dr. Pam Waynick-Rogers, Project Coordinator, at pamela.waynick@vanderbilt.edu.
