What have you been working on in Barton's Lab?

"I have been mostly working on a lab member's literature review on reinforcer assessments. I have also been coding practice articles and will start coding for IOA hopefully next week!"

What did you do before Vanderbilt?

"I worked as a preschool teacher in Jackson, WY. My family is all from Nashville so I was looking to move back to be closer to them. I found out about the masters program through my grandma's neighbor who graduated from this program several years ago!"
