SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

BARS:
Building a Resilient Scientist

The BRET Office and ASPIRE Program will be offering a pilot program (delivered virtually) developed by the NIH OITE office for biomedical graduate students to learn and implement strategies for building resiliency into their professional lives. A small group (12-15) of graduate students will meet 6 times between Feb-May 2021 with the course facilitators to discuss a webinar viewed on their own time prior to the meeting. Check out our post for more information and to submit your application. Deadline for application submission is noon, Friday, January 22, 2021.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Graduate Leadership Institute at the Vanderbilt Graduate School is hosting Dr. Carl Cohen, scientist and author of the terrific book, Lab Dynamics, for two virtual workshops for graduate students on leadership skills in the research workplace.

The Women in the Academy Series sponsored by the Vanderbilt Margaret Cuninggim Women's Center starts off the Spring with Eliminating Bias in Letters of Recommendation on Thursday, January 28.

The Office of Federal Relations invites undergraduate students, graduate students, or recent graduates from Vanderbilt University or the Washington, D.C.-area with ties to Tennessee who are interested in higher education or science public policy issues to apply for their summer internship.

Register for the 2021 Academic Lab Management + Leadership Symposium Feb 23 & 25 and March 2 & March 4. The course is based on the acclaimed Burroughs Wellcome Fund/Howard Hughes Medical Institute course in scientific management.

Applications for Pfizer's 2021 Summer Student Worker Program will be accepted starting on January 12, 2021. The SWP provides short-term student work to support Pfizer's business needs during the summer months.

The Annual Information Session on the Biogen Worldwide Medical PhD Fellowship is scheduled for Thursday, February 18th from 4:00 – 5:00 PM EST and will take place virtually. RSVP to attend and gain an inside perspective on a potential career in industry.

The Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education (ORISE) is hosting the Experience ORISE Virtual Career Fair on January 26th to highlight the variety of paid internships, fellowships and research opportunities available within their Research Participation Programs.

Attend Choate, Hall & Stewart's 2021 Spring Cocktail Reception and Career Exploration. This is a great opportunity to meet the members of the Patent and Intellectual Property department and learn more about a career at Choate.

Path to Postdoc at UCSF seeks applications from senior graduate students, particularly those from backgrounds historically marginalized in academic biomedical research, interested in pursuing postdoctoral training at UCSF or the associated Gladstone Institutes.

After the cancellation of the 2020 edition of this event, BioTN's Academic Alliance is excited to announce they will be having the Scipreneur Challenge in 2021! A general interest meeting via Zoom is scheduled for January 19.

The 52nd Annual Midwest Student Biomedical Research Forum \(MSBRF\) will be held virtually on February 27, 2021. Students are encouraged to submit an abstract for this year's forum. This very successful student activity has been co-sponsored by University of Nebraska Medical Center and Creighton University since 1987.
