ANNOUNCEMENTS

The great podcast, Hello PhD, has some episodes of interest. Check out:

- Episode 130: Coronavirs, and Life Outside the Lab
- Episode 131: How to Host a Dissertation Defense on Zoom

The ASPIRE Team is still here... virtually of course! If you need a CV/Resume review or an individual appointment, the ASPIRE team is here for you. Complete this form and someone will be in touch very shortly.

This unprecedented “free time” away from the lab can be a good opportunity to brush up on fundamental non-bench skills, like writing!

This free online Coursera course teaches scientists to become more effective writers, using practical examples and exercises. Topics covered include principles of effective writing (cutting unnecessary clutter and verbs), crafting better sentences and paragraphs, organization, and streamlining the writing process.

Code for Nashville \(CFN\) will be having a virtual meetup on April 27. Learn more about CFN and other opportunities through this local company.

On April 30, join Life Science Tennessee members from across the state for a virtual Beer and Biotech happy hour to stay connected and be inspired.

"Job-Ready Skills with O'Reilly and Other Online Resources Workshop" via Vanderbilt Library is now available to watch anytime. The O'Reilly platform contains reference materials on computer programming, technology, and business transformation via books, videos, case studies, audiobooks, and structured learning paths.
