

MIDDLE TENNESSEE STATE UNIVERSITY (MTSU), in Murfreesboro, TN, is located about 35 miles southeast of Nashville, Tennessee, and has been awarded by The Princeton Review's 2020 Edition as one of "The Best 385 Colleges."

MTSU seeks applications for almost thirty faculty positions for the 2021-2022 academic year who are committed to innovative teaching, robust research/creative activity, and meaningful service. We also seek a culturally and academically diverse faculty who value working with a diverse student body. Review of most applications begins early February and will continue until positions are filled.

Check us out at <http://careers.mtsu.edu/>

Terminal degree in the appropriate field from an accredited college or university is expected by appointment date for all positions and all faculty positions advertised are tenure-track at the assistant/associate rank unless otherwise indicated.

Application Procedures:

To apply, click on the link above and follow the instructions to complete an application, attach required documents, and submit your application online. If you have questions, please contact Academic Affairs at 615-898-5128. In most postings, applicants are required to include a cover letter, their curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching philosophy and their Research Statement or Creative Activities as appropriate to the discipline at the time of online application. However, please reference the posting for specific instructions on documents needed to apply.

Departments with Open Positions:

College of Basic and Applied Science

Aerospace, Biology, Computer Science, and Engineering Technology

College of Behavioral and Health Sciences

Criminal Justice Administration, Health and Human Performance, Nursing, Psychology, and Social Work

Jennings A. Jones College of Business

Accounting, Information Systems and Analytics, and Management

College of Education

Educational Leadership

College of Liberal Arts

Art and Design, History, Philosophy and Religious Studies, and Theatre and Dance

College of Media and Entertainment

Journalism and Strategic Media and Media Arts

Office of the University Provost

MTSU Dissertation Fellowship (Non-Tenurable)