

Madelynn Grace Myers

11820 Springhill Garden Drive Louisville, KY 40223 Phone: 502.681.3842 Email: Madelynn.G.Myers@Gmail.Com

Education

Vanderbilt University, Nashville, TN May 2017

May 2017

Bachelor of Arts, Molecular and Cellular Biology, Minors: Chemistry and Spanish

Sacred Heart Academy, Louisville, KY

May 2013

International Baccalaureate Diploma Recipient with concentrations in Biology, English, and Spanish Ranking 6/197; ACT 35

Work Experience

Vanderbilt Neurology Clinic – AbbVie Alzheimer’s Disease

June 2018 – Present

Clin/Tran Research Coordinator I

- Manages screening, implements recruitment procedures, consenting, enrollment, randomization and study conduct from planning through study closeout.
- Performs or implements processes to assure study-related procedures are performed as required and objectives and timelines are met.
- Maintains accurate and timely documentation and communication with Investigators, participants, IRB, sponsors and other research related entities.

Miss Universe Organization

January 2017 – Present

Miss Kentucky USA 2017

- Platform: Gender Equality in the STEM Field
- Speaker at the United Nations International Day of Women and Girls in Science
 - Speaker for “Equality and Parity in Science Policy Interface for Sustainable Development” Forum and “Girls in Science for Sustainable Development: Vision to Action”
- Called upon Kentucky’s congressmen in the District of Columbia to advocated for funding for afterschool programs and legislation for gender equality in the STEM Field
- Philanthropic work with the USO, Best Buddies, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, Shriners Hospitals for Children, Coalition for the Homeless, and Domestic Adoption Awareness

Cambridge Scholars’ Programme

May 2013 – Present

Assistant Director Medical Supervisor

- Organized schedules, classrooms, professor situations, and travel agendas
- Mentored students on academic and life decisions
- Hired deputies and other personnel
- Reserved accommodations, admission tickets, coaches, and event spaces
- Secured campaign development for advertisement and funding

Medical Supervisor

- Utilized Emergency Medical Responder skills to supervise students on trips and activities
- If needed, accompanied students to the emergency room

Surgical Core of Research Resources

August 2015 – May 2016

Intern

- Designed and presented data collection on new aneurysm treatment
- Shadowed procedures, clinical rotations, and attended collaborative department meetings
- Received a thorough introduction to the clinical research enterprise
- Daily tasks included literature searches, data management, database construction, and identifying patients for trial

Mayor’s SummerWorks Norton Healthcare

May 2015 – July 2015

Summer Intern

- Collected data regarding Cell-Bell Light Service and presented results to management
- Supported service users in a way that maintains dignity and privacy
- Shadowed and assisted doctors of different specialties
- Assisted in vital collection and patient transportation

Volunteer Work

Vanderbilt Global Medical Brigades

August 2013 – May 2016

Brigader – Ghana, Africa (2014), El Censo, Honduras (2015), Jinotega, Nicaragua (2016)

- Served in pharmacy, consultation, triage, obstetrics, and gynecology during a ten-day medical clinic
- Created long-term health plans for patients through facilitated medical care, increased prevention through education, and provided resources for patient follow up
- Constructed eight latrines, three sanitation stations (shower/latrine combination), and cemented floors in hopes of improving public health

Public Relations Chairman

- Promoted the name of the organization through apparel and fundraising events
- Recruited brigaders through meetings and open-panel discussions

Vanderbilt Hospital - Emergency Room

August 2014 – June 2016

Volunteer

- Assisted Emergency Department staff as necessary in the management of the Emergency Department
- Completed frequent rounds of all patients to assess their needs
- Assisted with visitors as needed in the waiting area
- Provided comfort and care to patients

Leadership Activities

Pi Beta Phi Fraternity for Women

January 2014 – January 2016

Vice President of Event Planning

- Planned and executed all chapter activities ranging from social and special events for 200 members and guests to creative motivational activities, parents' weekends, and recruitment events with 700 participants
- Planning experience includes vendor negotiation, contract reviews, transportation logistics and budgeting
- Ensured implementation of risk management policies and event management procedures
- Coordinated and acted as hostess for all chapter visitors

Policy and Standards Board Member

- Led a committee of eight women to oversee policy education and adherence to university and fraternity policies
- Reviewed and revised chapter's local governing bylaws
- Handled member adherence issues and concerns through a confidential confrontation/mediation process
- Analyzed issues and made recommendations for remediation to chapter leadership and advisors when appropriate

References

Connie Harrison

Director \ Miss Kentucky USA and Miss Universe Organization

- Telephone: 615-545-8357

Madi Taylor

Mentor \ Cambridge Scholars' Programme

- Telephone: 618-997-2034

Kaitlyn Hay, M.S.

Clinical Research Coordinator \ Department of Neurology Cognitive and Behavioral Disorders

- Telephone: 615-875-4350