

WOMEN IN LEADERSHIP

Empowering women in leadership roles to be catalysts for their own and their organization's success.

This is a two-day intensive program for female managers, supervisors and executives who are looking for relevant solutions to real challenges in leadership roles. The program will begin with research and facts about women in business today, and seek your input for how we solve within our organizations. You will also invest in yourself by creating a personal brand strategy, negotiating needs, and handling challenging group dynamics. Equipped with new and innovative strategies, you will return to your leadership roles with enhanced abilities to lead with confidence.

Participants will:

- Learn how to overcome common roadblocks for women in leadership
- Identify key strategies for managing group dynamics
- Sharpen persuasive presentation skills
- Incorporate effective negotiation strategies
- Develop an ongoing plan for personal development

The value to organizations:

Participants will learn practical strategic frameworks and tools they can apply right away, including:

- New frameworks for communicating a vision
- Conflict resolution capabilities
- Strong interpersonal and presentation skills to create buy-in amidst challenging group dynamics
- Leadership strategies for managing highly productive teams
