

2019 ADVOCACY SUMMIT

March 31 – April 2 | Washington, D.C.
Washington Marriott Georgetown, 1221 22nd Street NW

Children in the U.S. and around the world need you now! Help to create real change for kids by participating in Save the Children and Save the Children Action Network's 2019 Advocacy Summit. By working together, we can give kids everywhere a strong start in life!

The Advocacy Summit will offer three days of dynamic sessions, exciting speakers and meetings with your elected leaders. We will provide a unique opportunity for you to delve deeper into the issues, receive training from leading experts and act to ensure that matters critical to children's lives and futures are prioritized by our elected leaders.

Sunday, March 31, 2019 – Advocacy Skills Training & Awards Dinner

Hear from leading experts on how to be the most effective advocate for kids that you can be! This half-day of training includes multiple breakout sessions for attendees with different levels of advocacy experience. On Sunday evening, we will celebrate the work of our most committed volunteers through a special awards dinner.

Monday, April 1, 2019 – Deep Dive into the Issues

This full day of keynote speakers and engaging panel discussions will provide you with the key messages, powerful stories and policy understanding to advocate on behalf of kids here at home and around the world. On Monday evening, you will have the opportunity to check out one of D.C.'s most popular restaurants or join a social activity just for students.

Tuesday, April 2, 2019 – Capitol Hill Briefings & Lobby Day

We will head to Capitol Hill for our annual Congressional Breakfast, where you will hear from elected leaders who support smart solutions that transform children's lives. Participants will then have the opportunity to meet with members of Congress and their staff to advocate for investments and policies that benefit kids.
