I understand that international students (on F-1 or J-1 Visa) cannot work more than 20 hours a week while classes are in session. Students that work more than 20 hours a week, while classes are in session, will have their immigration record terminated and will be required to leave the U.S. Reentry to the U.S. is not guaranteed.

Vanderbilt policy limits work on campus to an average of 19 hours a week, while classes are in session.

B. This section is to be completed by International Student & Scholar Services

As provided by 8CFR 214.2(f)(9)(i) or 22 CFR 62.23(g)(1)(i-ii), this Designated School Official/Responsible Officer certifies that the above named student is allowed to work on-campus a cumulative maximum of 20 hours per week during school sessions, and full-time during vacation periods and summer. Conditions to this employment are that the student must maintain valid F-1 or J-1 student status at Vanderbilt University.

As the student is in F-1 or J-1 visa status through Vanderbilt, he/she should present his/her passport, I-94 record, and I-20 or DS-2019, in addition to this form.

☐ I confirm that this is a Vanderbilt University student in good immigration standing and has been validated in SEVIS.

NOTE: After receiving the SSN, students MUST first take their SSN card to the Registrar’s Office (Baker Building 110), then to Human Resources to update the I-9. Students will have problems with their VUNETID if they fail to take their SSN card to the Registrar’s Office first. Also, update your SSN with the Student Health Center.
