

Eleanor Dean

New York, NY | (555) 237-7654 | e.dean@vanderbilt.edu | linkedin.com/in/Eleanor_dean

E.D.

Education

Vanderbilt University, Nashville, TN

Expected May 2019

Bachelor of Science, Elementary Education and Child Studies

Minor: Earth and Environmental Sciences

GPA: 3.7; Dean's List (Fall 2015, Fall 2016, Spring 2017, Fall 2017)

Honors: Peabody College Dean's Achievement Scholarship recipient, Kappa Delta Pi International Honor Society in Education

University of Edinburgh, Edinburgh, UK

Spring 2018

Study Abroad Coursework: Oceanography, Geomorphology, Creating Scotland (Scottish Studies)

Manlius Pebble Hill School, Dewitt, NY

June 2015

GPA: 3.8

Awards: Bryn Mawr Book Award, 2015; Faculty Award, 2016

Professional Experience

YMCA Day Camp Iroquois, Syracuse, NY

Summer 2017, 2018

Inclusion Support Counselor

- Fostered the inclusion of campers with disabilities in activities with their typically developing peers
- Collaborated with counselor to provide a safe summer camp experience for 12 campers, aged 7-12
- Provided mobility assistance, administered medication, and changed and fed campers as needed

Vanderbilt University, Peabody College, Nashville, TN

Jan. 2017 – Dec. 2017

Undergraduate Research Assistant for the Department of Teaching and Learning

- Conducted research on feedback in mathematical instruction under the direction of Professor Melissa Gresalfi
- Coded and analyzed video recordings of approximately 25 middle school students playing a math video game and graded pre- and post-play assessment of skills

Teaching Experience

Glenview Elementary, Nashville, TN

Fall 2018

Practicum in Reading and Language Arts

- Created and implemented lesson plans in reading and writing, with integrated social studies, in a fourth-grade class
- Prepared instruction and taught a guided reading group of four students and tutored one student resulting in elevated understanding
- Differentiated whole-class instruction and guided reading for English Language Learners

Percy Priest Elementary, Nashville, TN

Fall 2017

Practicum in Elementary Mathematics

- Planned and taught third-grade math lessons, including "number talks" to support development of mental math skills
- Guided students in math review and managed small groups with five to eight student participants

East End Prep, Nashville, TN

Spring 2017

Practicum in Elementary Science and Social Studies

- Developed lesson plans in science and social studies and delivered them to a diverse third-grade class
- Graded assessments and assisted with other classroom tasks, including behavior management

Leadership

Vanderbilt University, Peabody College

Dec. 2015 – Present

Academic Leader

- Welcomed prospective and admitted students at Black and Gold Days and other events in association with the Peabody Student Affairs office
- Spoke on a panel about academic decisions, study abroad, and internships for first year Peabody students

Students Promoting Environmental Awareness and Responsibility (SPEAR)

Nov. 2015 – Present

Vice President of Service (Aug. 2016-Dec. 2017) Vice President of Education (Jan.-May 2016, May 2018-Present)

- Organized eleven environmental service events in the Nashville community for SPEAR members
- Headed a committee of SPEAR members to enact education initiatives, such as a signage for dining halls and a recycling training event for first year students