

Between 2008 peak and 2015, Vanderbilt University's Greenhouse Gas emissions have decreased by:

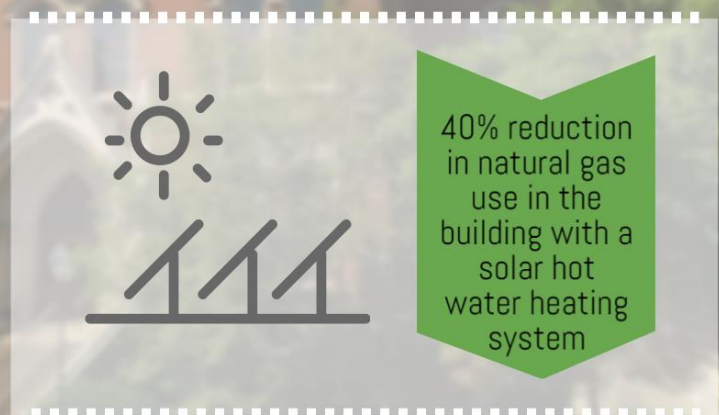

Vanderbilt's power plant was converted to use 100% natural gas at the end of 2014, making 2015 the first full year that Vanderbilt operated without burning coal!

Reduction in Air Pollutants from the Power Plant Conversion

Vanderbilt added two new solar installations to campus!

Vanderbilt University Inventory of Greenhouse Gas Emissions 2015