

Scholarship Opportunities for Educators

The Center for Latin American Studies (CLAS) at Vanderbilt University is willing to provide financial support to K-16 educators to participate in professional development workshops listed on the CLAS teacher workshop web page. Expenses may include round trip airfare, mileage, lodging, or workshop fees, and would be paid as a reimbursement for such expenses following the workshop. Priority will be given to applicants not previously funded by CLAS and to applicants who demonstrate strong need for an intensive professional development opportunity. To apply, please send the attached application form to colleen.e.mccoy@vanderbilt.edu.

Name
Home Address
Phone Number
Date of Birth
Name of educational institution City, State
Grade(s) & Subject(s) Taught
Which workshop you are interested in receiving funding for?

Cover Letter (please attach)	Please submit a typed statement which details how you incorporate Latin American content in your teaching, and how participating in the workshop will contribute to your professional development.
Financial Need Statement (please attach)	Please describe your need for this scholarship. Please include specific (or estimated, if necessary) financial assistance requests. Expenses may include round trip airfare, mileage, lodging, or registration fees.

Center for Latin American Studies

Outreach at the Center for Latin American Studies
PMB 351806 | 2301 Vanderbilt Place
Nashville, Tennessee 37235